

MAW Charities Children's Program

MAW is a nonprofit established to provide a range of assistance to previously married mothers with children under 18 who have been abandoned by their husbands or whose husbands have died prematurely.

In January of 2018 we are launching our children's program.

We have come to realize when children are able to participate in other extracurricular activities; they earn better grades, communicate with their peers better, and overall are able to experience the things that their mother might not be able to afford due to temporary circumstances.

Guidelines

- Mothers Must be a part of the MAW Charities Program
- Child Must be under 18 years of age
- Extracurricular activities must be approved by MAW
- Funds from extracurricular activities will be paid directly to activity, organization and/or school (No cash will be distributed to MAW mom or child)
- In cases where uniforms/supplies are needed, MAW will pay directly to company or purchase a gift card only to go towards uniform

Special Cases

We do understand in certain situations that our services may be needed for just the children. MAW is a small organization and unfortunately while we would love to help everyone, our resources are limited.

If there is a case where an under 18 child or teenager needs help with extracurricular activities, and the mother is abandoned or widowed, but she does not need our help, we will still consider reviewing the situation in order to help the student/child with these resources.

*This is a case by case basis.
